Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 3, 5, 6, 8, 10, 12, 13, 15, 17, and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Canfield, Jr. (US 6,148,963).

Canfield Jr. discloses a brake system for a human powered vehicle (see Fig. 1) including at least one wheel 20, said braking system comprising: a plurality of elongate mounting brackets 30,32 having opposed end portions connected to a frame of a wheelbarrow and an axle passing through a wheel of a wheelbarrow respectively, a plurality of levers 4 including first end portions pivotally connected to said plurality of mounting brackets respectively, said plurality of levers further including second end portions disposed rearwardly from said first end portions respectively, a plurality of brake pads connected to said plurality of levers and extending inwardly towards opposed sides of a wheel of a wheelbarrow respectively, a brake handle 80 connected to a frame of a wheelbarrow; and cable means 52 cooperating with said brake handle for causing said plurality of brake pads to engage and disengage a wheel of a wheelbarrow, said cable means being connected to said brake handle and to said second end portions of said plurality of levers respectively.

Re claim 3, 5, 6, 8, 10, 12, 13, 15, 17, and 19 see Fig. 2.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2, 4, 7, 9, 11, 14, 16, 18, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Canfield, Jr. (US 6,148,963) in view of Lumpkin (US 5,564,531).

Canfield, Jr. fails to disclose the support member arranged according to claim 2.

However, such support members are notorious for use in rim grip brakes, an example of which is Lumpkin's support member 114. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to which the invention pertains at the time the invention was made to have included a support member in a Canfield, Jr. brake according to the teachings of Lumpkin in order to better equalize braking force.

Re claims 4 and 7, see Fig. 1 of Lumpkin.

Re claim 9, see above rejection re claim 2.

Re claims 11 and 14, see Fig. 1 of Lumpkin.

Re claim 16, see above rejection re claim 2.

Re claims 18 and 20, see Fig. 1 of Lumpkin.
